

Holiday Arts Market

The Yoknapatawpha Arts Council & the Oxford Artist Guild will host a Holiday Arts Market December 3-6, 2009 at the Powerhouse Community Arts Center. The Holiday Arts Market will host booths inside The Powerhouse featuring artworks and hand created gifts for the holidays. The Holiday Arts Market will coincide with Theatre Oxford's holiday play. Booths are 6' x 6' spaces and do not need to be staffed each day. Each participant will volunteer for a 4 hour shift over the course of the arts market so a central sales table will be staffed to assist buyers of all artists work. Due to limited space only 21 booths will be available. A special Saturday only option is available for artists who just want to exhibit the one day. Saturday spaces are limited to 6 foot table top displays.
