

Yoknapatawpha Arts Council Holiday Ornament Auction

Artist Invitation

The Yoknapatawpha Arts Council is the official arts agency for the City of Oxford and Lafayette County, MS. The Arts Council raises funds to support over 20 arts groups, educational programs for students, free programs for the community, and the transformation of a 1928 industrial building into a community arts center. In 2008 The Arts Council hosted over 300 days of arts programs on a budget of just $280,000

Our Annual Holiday Ornament Auction is one of the key fundraisers. The Arts Council would like to ask you to donate your talent to ensure we can continue to provide artist the opportunity to create while engaging the community in arts programs.

Oxford and Lafayette County is a small community with an active base of support. The Arts Council seeks to enhance this popular fundraiser by expanding our network of artist and placing some of the most unique items created by recognized artists, celebrities, and cultural icons for auction online hoping to increase our donation.

We would like to invite you to be part of this event by creating a holiday ornament for the auction.

Each Artist Donating an ornament will receive:

2 Tickets to the Holiday Ornament Auction: Dec. 12, 2009
Recognition on our Website: www.oxfordarts.com
Ornament featured in our online Gallery
Inclusion in press, media, and announcements
Tax Deductable Donation letter for value of art work
